Second Division-Semi final, W. D. Burtle, Char-What was pronounced the biggest killing of the year was put through successfully by Newton Bennington and Fred Burlew at the Bay yesterday when Capt. Emerich, a bay colt by Solitaire II .- Georgia VI., won the race. It was estimated that the ring paid out more than $100,000 on the colt's Bennington and his trainer had succeeded in keeping this good thing well under cover. He had started four times and in each instance showed nothing. His handlers were waiting for a soft spot and dropped him, accordingly, in with a lot of fair maiden two-year-olds. The wise element when the layers put up 10 to 1 the mighty plunge began. Clubhouse commissioners handled big wagers made by Bennington, Dave Gideon, Jesse Lewisohn, Senator Mc-Carren, E. R. Thomas, Al Dryer, A. B. Hudson, Sydney Paget and all of the notable speculators who frequent that enclosure.

The combined clubhouse commission caused a flurry in the ring when agents jumped from book to book getting on the money in all sorts of sums. The plungers, who do not equent the clubhouse, but keep close to the bookmakers all the afternoon, were busy everywhere betting on Capt. Emerich, until the crowd at large, taking a tumble to what was in the wind, followed suit. When the bugle sounded the speculation had been inder way about fifteen minutes and the odds had dropped to 4. Still the money continued to flow into the cash boxes, the layers rubbing to 3, then to 2, and finally to 9 to 5, when the horses were facing the barrier far up the Futurity course. Many of the books tried to bet on the good thing with their fellow layers, but the wagers were refused. Some of the chalkers rubbed entirely after they had received wagers at 5, as they felt in their cones that a killing was going through.

CHICAGO, June 28.—When the field in the national open golf championship at Onwentsia had reported their scores for the entire thirty-six holes of the day, this afternoon, Alexander Smith, the Western title holder, who hails from the Nassau Country Club, led the players with 147 for the first half of the competition. Willie Anderson, Willie Smith and Alexander Smith tied in the first eighteen hole round, all getting 73 for the initial journey in the race for the championship. The scores for thirty-six holes:

Alex Smith, Nassau, 147; Alex Campbell, Brookline, 160; Charles Johnson, Milwaukee, 160; Robert Taylor, Minikahda, 161; David Meintosh, Westward Ho, 158; William Duffy, St. Louis, 174; D. K. White, Algonquin, 162; William Marshall, Onwentsia, 162; Robert White, Ravistoe, 168; H. J. Brady, Newton Centre, Mass., 168; Ernest Wain, Wheeling, 164; Warren K. Wood, Homewood, 163; J. W. Watson, Slokie, 166; George Ormiston, Oakmount, 161; John M. Sellers, Glenview, 163; Otto Hackbarth, Oconomowoe, 164; Charles H. Rowe, Beaver Valley, 163; John Router, Dayton, 177; R. E. Hunter, Midlothian, 161; J. Simpson, Riverside, 18; W. G. Dow, Normandie, 160; George O'Nelli, Auburn Park, 166; Peter Robertson, Pittsburg, 157; R. B. Martin, Calumet, 171; Alex Russ, Brae Burn, 155; M. O'Laughlin, Plainfield, 168; Percy Barrett, Lambton, 155; Siewart Gardner, Gardner City, 156; Bernard Nichols, New York, 156; George Cummings, Toronto, 155; I. S. Mackle, Fox Hills, 168; Jack Hobens, Englewood, 150; C. C. Herton, Evanston, 168; J. Douglas, Midlothan, 171; Fred McLeod, Midlothian, 169; George Lowe, Baltursol, 161; Jack Jolly, New York, 160; Alex Baxter, LaGrange, 164; James Madden, Toledo, 153; Thomas Cancill, Edgewater, 166; O. W. Potter, Jr., Midlothan, 169; George Cummings, Toronto, 157; William Anderson, Onwentsia, 149; Fred E. Rand, Allegheny, 155. During the running of the race intense exto be beaten as he rounded the bend in the when he made up the ground in the rush to the wire and his number was fimally hoisted, the layers went back to their stools shaking their heads. While the ring lost heavily on the result, the setback was partially offset by the money wagered on J. C. re who was backed from 3 down to 11 to 5. and also by the support accorded three ways to Dave Johnson's Baytwig. Jacinta, owned by Peter Wimmer, carried a bunch, too, as she was backed from 20 down to 8, and looked Umbrella was heavily backed for the place, however, a play that put a further crim p in the layers' bank rolls. At the last moment there was a good play on H. K. Vingut's Compensation, a 100 to 1 shot, chiefly to show. This colt, who did not get away any too well, was just outside of the money and was gaining rapidly at Dave Johnson, after losing a fat wager on

Roseben, proceeded cautiously, until the betting on the Sheepshead Bay Handicap began. Then he went around the ring and placed comparatively small wagers on Inquisitor at 20 to 1. The Newcastle Stable people also bet on this colt, Bill Cowan losing to them one bet of $6,000 to $300. The public bet on Halifax with confidence. But, as the race was run, a mile proved to be too far for him. He breezed the first three-quarters in 1:12, but tired after E. W. Jewett's Bedouin was a supposed good thing, Fred Johnson, Bob McGib bon and others assisting in the reduction of the odds from 10 to 7. But Wishard was of no help to the Meddler gelding, who ran a good race on his own hook at that. Prince Hamburg was played down two points, while Von Tromp and King's Daughter were also in demand across the boards. Inquisitor's time, 1:37 3-5 cut a fifth of a second off the best record of the course, made in 1991 by August Belmont's Brigadier, in the same stake, with 122 pounds. Inquisitor was in receipt of eleven pounds from Halifax and gave the same weight to Von Tromp. Previous winners of the race were Don Alonzo, Domino, St. Maxim, Havoc, Semper Ego, Fly By Night, Greyfeld, Briga-dier, Kamara, Blues, Graziallo and Woodsaw. The remarkably close finish was a tribute to the skill of W. S. Vosburgh. Peter Pan's share of the Surf Stakes was $5,010 for Mr. Keene. He went up in the betting to 2 to 1, while the Newcastle Stable's Saracinesca was backed down to 9 to 5. Pan won like a good colt and is bound to improve. The Surf is one of the oldest turf It was first run in 1880, with these winners Spinaway, Marsh Redon, Jacobus, Thackeray, Wanda, Portland, Tremont, Magnetizer, Reporter, Torso, Sally McClelland, Merry Monarch, Hammie, Declare, Keenan, Hastings, Lithos, Varus, Autumn, Missionary, Watercolor, Smart Set, Monte Carlo, Inflexible, Sparkling Star and Voorhees.

Will they ever stop betting on Roseben? The old fellow has been in poor form all the year, yet the public and Owner Dave Johnson have been betting on him heavily. Johnson did not put down his wagers yester day until the last minute and then he gobbled up 9 to 10. The clubhouse took Kiamesha with confidence and the crack Esher mare won her first race of the year in grand style She was just breezing at the wire. I;oseben gave her twenty-two pounds, Klamesha meeting Handzarra on even terms as to weight. In another jump Watergrass would re beaten Roseben out of third money. W. O. Scully has a claim of $75 against

Kid Weller which is causing much discussion. Scully made a bet with Weller at Belmont Park. It was a marker and the horse won. When Scully went around to cash he was informed that the bet did not go because he did not put up the cash. As Scully had bet a marker with Weller before and had been paid he took the case before the arbitration committee of the Mets. But when the committee, after hearing Scully's side, looked around for Weller yesterday they found that the bookmaker had gone to the Salem track in New Hampshire. So Scully will have to

There were no new developments in the protest of F. R. Hitchcock against Go Between's victory in the Suburban, as the case was in the hands of the stewards. It was said that the matter would be carried before the stewards of the Jockey Club for final adjustment.

TAKES SHEEPSHEAD BAY HANDI-CAP BY A NOSE.

Von Tromp Beats Halifax, the Favorite, a Head for the Place in a Remarkably Fast Mile-Peter Pan's Surf Stakes -Roseben Badly Beaten by Klamesha

The Newcastle Stable's Inquisitor, 20 to 1, won the Sheepshead Bay Handicap, one mile at the Bay yesterday, by a nose in the last jump. He closed with a great rush in the stretch and caught Halifax, the favorite who was tiring rapidly at the end. Halifax, with Shaw up, cut out a fast pace, after run-ning through his field in the first furlong. He had a lead of four lengths when he reached the three-quarter pole, but the pace told and he backed up thereafter in spite of an ener-getic ride by his jockey. Von Tromp, 5 to 1, also beat Halifax a head for the place, with Dishabille, 15 to 1, a head out of the money. Dolly Spanker and Bedouin were knocking at the door, the latter being poorly ridden The mile was run in 1:37 3-5, a new record for the track and a fifth of a second behind the

TRIPLE TIE FOR FIRST PLACE.

NEW YORKS, CLEVELANDS AND PHILADELPHIAS IN A BUNCH.

Griffith's Men Beat Bostons by Fine Playing, Mack's Team Loses to Washingtons, Lajole's Braves Break Even With the Chicagos-St. Louis Team Wins.

A three cornered tie exists in the American League for first place. The New Yorks beat the Bostons again yesterday, the Philadelphias stubbed their toe in Washington and the Clevelands broke even with the Chicagos. The three leaders are exactly even in games won and lost-a rare and interesting state of affairs. The Detroits were beaten by St. Louis and tied by the latter for fifth place. The tussle for fourth place is almost as close as that for first position. The results: New York, 7: Boston, 4.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 7; BOSTON (A. L.), 4. Helping hands in the field and base hits that rang off the bat were so nicely blended by notable victory over the Bostons. The field ing of the New Yorks was very fast and with-out a flaw, and with the bat they rallied in the eighth inning and snatched the game away from the American League trailers. Stunning support helped Pitcher Hogg out of several small holes, for the home twirler was disposed to be wild. Also he pitched an erratic game, being unhittable in one inning and easily bit in another. Not all of the good fielding was done by the

Not all of the good fielding was done by the New Yorks. There were rattling plays by the Bostons, Ferris excelling for them in this particular. Harris, who was batted out of the box in the eighth inning, made a circus catch of a hot liner of Williams's providing. He took the ball in his gloved hand and then did a partial somersault from the force of it. Conroy shut off a Boston run by a jumping stop, and Williams was sure and agile on ground balls. Chase's fielding topjed them all. He made two one handed catches of throws and was the biggest part of a timely and somewhat oddly constructed double play. A trio of base hits was his portion at the bat. The New Yorks scored once in the first on

With two out in the eighth, Freeman walked, Hoev singled. Ferris trided and Hayden singled. Three runs resulted. Kleinow, who threw to bases very accurately stopped the attack by entring of Hayden stealing. Keeler started New York's rammant response to Hoston's raily. He tapped a single over Parent. Chase crowded a three bagger between Morgan and the third bag, Keeler scoring. Conroy hit sharply to left and accounted for Chase's ruly. scoring. Conroy hit sharply to left and accounted for Chase's run.

Harris resigned at this stage and Dineen, apparently without any warming up, came in. He had neither speed nor control. He made a weak throw to first to catch Conroy, who stole second on the play. Laporte put Conroy on third with a safe bunt toward Dineen, and that ended the Dineen regime. Young came in and was lolted for a triple to right by Williams, which scored Conroy. After Depahanty had fanned and Hoffman had filed to Parent, a passed ball on a third strike assisted Williams to the plate. Armbruster could have redeemed his passed ball to the extent of heading Kleinow off at first base if he had not bounced the ball off Kleinow s brick red roof. The score.

Aleck Smith (winner of Championship), Gilbert Nicholls and W. H. Way (lowest 18 hole score) all played the new Silk Pneumatic Golf Ball in the Western Open Championship and took three of the six prizes offered.

The competition was open to the world, and the best Golfers in America contested. The Silk Pneumatic Ball hehaved beautifully under all conditions—was out in front on the drives and was reliable and dependable in approaching and putting.

Our claim that the Silk Pneumatic Ball excels in revy department of the game is supported by the play and by the results of this, the most important match since the Silk Pneumatic was placed on the market.

Pneumatic Golf Balls are unlike any other Golf Balls made. For liveliness they depend upon compressed all 720 by a in the heart of the New Silk Pneumatic is confined by a flexible wall of wound silk thread and covered with a thin conting of ungashable. Para Rubber.

Purest silk makes the wall of the new ball more flexible, and the force of your blow is more readily communicated to the pent-up liveliness in the air chamber.

The greater strength of pure silk thread also permits of greater compression of the cir, which also increases the liveliness of the bill.

But,—the liveliness of Fneumatic Balls decreases faster in preportion as you lessen.

TROUBLE OVER CATCHER PHELPS. Dreyfust Charges Herrmann With Weakening Team He Bet Against.

PITTSBURG, June 28.—There is much trouble brewing in the National League camp at Pittsburg. Catcher Eddie Phelps, who has been ordered from Pitteburg to the Boston, American League Club by Chairman Garry Herrmann of the National Baseball mission, makes the announcement that he will not obey, but that he will quit baseball and go into business for himself at Albany, N. Y. But the real trouble promises to be between the Pittsburg Club and Herrmann, between the Pittsburg Club and Herrmann, who is laccused by Dreyfuss of doing what was not right. Dreyfuss to-day took legal counsel in Pittsburg for the purpose of getting out an injunction to restrain Herrmann from weakening the Pittsburg team after he had bet his money against it.

Herrmann, it is asserted in Pittsburg, has bet in New York $6,000 against $2,000 that Pittsburg will not win the pennant this season CINCINATI, June 28. Herrmann admits betting $6,000 against Pittsburg, but says & was after he awarded Phelps to Boston.
